To strengthen its business fundamentals and portfolio restructuring, TELKOM is also streamlining its current non-core portfolio, so that in the future TELKOM will be more focused, agile, and competitive on the global stage.

As part of the implementation of this transformation, on June 2, 2026, PT Multimedia Nusantara ("TELKOMMETRA"), as a direct subsidiary of Telkom, alongside PT Metra Digital Investama Ventura ("MDI"), divested their entire shareholdings in PT Administrasi Medika ("AdMedika").

This corporate action was executed not only simplifying portfolio, but also to unlock value, and align with PT Danantara Asset Management Persero ("DAM")'s strategic aspirations regarding subsidiary streamlining in State-Owned Enterprises.

Subsequently, this transaction proceeded through a divestment scheme (100%) of TelkomMetra and MDI's entire ownership in AdMedika Group through a Share Purchase Arrangement (SPA) with Global Assistance & Healthcare Singapore Pte, Ltd.
